

MARSH PRIVATE CLIENT SERVICES NAMED BEST HIGH-NET-WORTH INSURANCE BROKER BY PRIVATE ASSET MANAGEMENT MAGAZINE

February 16, 2017

Marsh, a global leader in insurance broking and risk management, announced that its Private Client Services (PCS) division was named “Best High-Net-Worth Insurance Broker” by Private Asset Management (PAM) magazine, a leading publication reporting on the wealth management and family office industries. Winners were selected by an independent panel of judges based on financial progress, growth, client satisfaction, and product innovation over the course of the previous year. Marsh PCS also won this award in 2013 and 2015.

“Receiving this award for the third time in the last five years is a true testament to the excellent innovations we are able to provide to our clients,” said Pete Walther, President of Marsh PCS. “We are honored and humbled by this distinction. It also reinforces our commitment to driving future growth in the family office client segment.”

Mark Bates, Marsh PCS Chief Operating Officer, accepted the award at the 2017 PAM Awards ceremony held in New York City earlier this month. “PCS colleagues are dedicated to delivering a superior client experience, and I am incredibly proud that our outstanding capabilities in this area stood out in the eyes of the judges.”

“The PAM Awards celebrates the best, brightest and most innovative in wealth management and this year’s in particular was especially competitive,” said Katherine Xenna Goh, editor of Private Asset Management. “This year’s judges took into consideration service and coverage for high-net-worth investors and families in the category of ‘Best HNW Insurance Broker’ and once again selected Marsh based on its numbers and exceptional service.”
