Why Join the Marsh Graduate Development Program?

As a Marsh graduate, you will be part of a supportive working environment with access to buddies, mentors, and rotation managers. We understand the importance of a strong support network across the business that is committed to helping you succeed and fulfil your potential.

The Marsh Graduate Development Program offers a solid foundation for your career development as you will gain valuable work experience through on-the-job trainings linked to exciting cross-functional job rotations. As a part of this structured 2-year learning curriculum, there will also be opportunities for you to participate in special projects with senior management and network with colleagues, clients, insurers, partners, and other industry peers.

To help you build a sense of connection and community throughout your career, you can look forward to diversity and inclusion initiatives where you can join colleague resource groups championing causes such as wellness, gender diversity, and development of young professionals. We care about our communities and support our colleagues' efforts to give back in the ways that are most meaningful to them.
